

Barbara A. Bloom

bbloom@bullardlaw.com

Practice Area

Labor Contract Administration
Collective Bargaining
NLRB and Oregon ERB Proceedings
Labor Arbitration
Employee and Supervisory Training
Personnel Policies and Practices
EEOC and Bureau of Labor Proceedings

Bar Admission

Oregon, 1992

Education

J.D., Willamette University, 1992
B.S., Santa Clara University, 1989

Barb Bloom, a shareholder at the firm, practices exclusively in the area of management labor and employment law. Barb's primary areas of practice include public sector collective bargaining, conducting workplace training seminars, labor agreement administration, labor arbitrations, review of personnel policies and practices, managing discipline and discharge issues.

Barb is a member of the American Bar Association, Oregon State Bar, and Multnomah Bar Association. She has served on the Board of Directors for the Northwest Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Association and on the Executive Committee for the Oregon State Bar, Labor and Employment Law Section.

Barb is a frequent speaker at labor and employment law seminars including presentations for the Oregon State Bar, Bureau of Labor and Industries, Society For Human Resource Management, Special Districts Association of Oregon and International Municipal Lawyers Association.

Barb was raised in the Portland, Oregon area. She is a graduate of Santa Clara University (B.S. 1989) and Willamette University College of Law (J.D. 1992). Barb enjoys music, travel and participating as a youth sports coach.